Legislative/Regulatory Requirements

Section 29 of the Adequacy Standards Regulation requires a police services board to have a policy on investigations into fraud and false pretences.

In addition, section 12(1)(g) requires the Chief of Police to develop and maintain procedures on and processes for undertaking and managing investigations into fraud and false pretences.

Sample Board Policy

Board Policy # _____

It is the policy of the _____ Police Services Board with respect to fraud and false pretences investigations that the Chief of Police will:

- a) develop and maintain procedures that require that investigations be undertaken and managed in accordance with the police service's criminal investigation management plan;
- b) work, where possible, with municipal and provincial social assistance officials and the Crown, to develop a local protocol on the investigation of social assistance fraud;
- c) establish, where possible, cooperative arrangements for the investigation of fraud and false pretences occurrences with:
 - i) the Employment Insurance Commission;
 - ii) the Fire Marshal's Office;
 - iii) the Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations; and
 - iv) the insurance industry; and
- d) ensure that police officers investigating complex fraud and false pretences occurrences have the knowledge, skills and abilities required.

Police Service Guidelines

- Coordination*
1. Every Chief of Police should work, where possible, with municipal and provincial social assistance officials and the Crown, to develop a local protocol on the investigation of social assistance fraud that addresses:
 - a) collation of information when a person is suspected of social assistance fraud;
 - b) process for referring a case to the police;
 - c) initial preparation and vetting of the case file;
 - d) collection, preservation and control of evidence; and
 - e) preparation and vetting of the Crown brief.

2. Every Chief of Police should, where possible, enter into cooperative arrangements, for the investigation of fraud and false pretences occurrences with:
 - a) the Employment Insurance Commission;
 - b) the Fire Marshal's Office;
 - c) the Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations; and
 - d) the insurance industry.

Procedures

3. Every police service's procedures on fraud and false pretences investigations should:
 - a) require that investigations be undertaken and managed in accordance with the police service's criminal investigation management plan;
 - b) address the criteria and steps for obtaining investigative supports and specialized resources, including forensic accountants, fire marshals and other experts in the field of fraud investigation, where required;
 - c) address the provision of assistance to victims of fraud, in particular elder or vulnerable adults, in accordance with the police service's procedures on victims' assistance and elder and vulnerable adult abuse;
 - d) set out the steps for sharing information with other relevant law enforcement and government agencies on serial fraud occurrences, including multi-jurisdictional occurrences; and
 - e) address the dissemination of information to the public on fraud.
4. Every police service's procedures should address social assistance fraud, including:
 - a) upon receiving a case file from an Eligibility Review Officer, the investigating officer should review it carefully to determine if reasonable grounds exist for a charge to be laid or if further evidence or information is required utilizing the checklists provided;
 - b) if further information is required, the investigating officer should consult with the Eligibility Review Officer regarding information that can be lawfully and feasibly collected for delivery to the police, i.e., information, which is under the control of the Ministry of Community and Social Services/Municipality and was collected as part of the Eligibility Review Officer's regulatory investigation;
 - c) if it is not lawful or feasible for the Eligibility Review Officer to collect the specified information and/or evidence, the investigating officer should endeavour to do so in accordance with applicable legislation and the police service's procedures referring to such matters;
 - d) if a charge is laid, the investigating officer should use the supplemental Crown brief checklist as a guide and submit the case file, through the appropriate chain of command, to the Crown; and
 - e) where the Crown determines upon review of the case file that additional investigation is required, the investigating officer should follow up and endeavour to provide the requested information and/or evidence, as soon as practicable.
